Dear Mr Richard,

ASSOFIR, National Association of Regional Development Agencies, is active in several European Countries to develop contacts with potential partners, with the aim of setting up a European Network of Regional Development Agencies.

The opportunity of this initiative, whose objectives are explained in details in the attached document, is shared by Mr Charles de Chassirons, Economic Counsellor of the British Embassy in Rome, who has selected for us a number of potential interlocutors to approach.

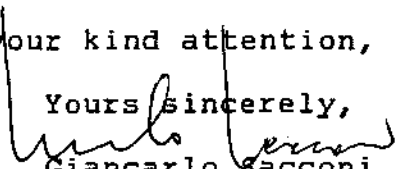

Following this first written communication, you will receive a telephone call from Mr Alessandro Lamantia, an ASSOFIR economic adviser, to have a first verification of eventual interest on your part regarding our initiative.

On the 14th and/or 15th of March, I have planned a visit to London to contact in person those British Bodies and Institutions who have shown interest in a closer examination of our proposal.

Such an occasion could be ideal also to program a meeting, presided by Mr Silvano Nizzoli, National Chairman of ASSOFIR, among all the interested subjects, with the aim of defining a first draft of a common line of action.

Thanking you for your kind attention, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Giancarlo Sacconi
